

Kid Stuff!

Club Penguin www.clubpenguin.com owned by Disney, a safe online social network for children to communicate. Children can play games, dress their penguins, and go to virtual places. This site is approved by the Better Business Bureau and monitored in partnership with NetSmartz.org partnership with the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children and Boys & Girls Clubs of America.

www.askkids.com "Ask Jeeves" spinoff site for children. Bountiful resources for homework assistance, games, trivia, and tips www.coolmathforkids.com A fun math website for children with assistance, games, and lessons.

Free Fun!

Parents: look on specially marked packages of Banquet Dinners where there is almost always free bowling coupons

Chuck E Cheese provides free tokens and game play to children with satisfactory report cards.

Visit www.chuckecheese.com for more details.

Health Fact

Children that participate in just 30 minutes per day of outside playtime can improve and strengthen their immune system, metabolic rate, as well as increased exposure to vitamin D from the sun, a necessary nutrient for bone strength and memory retention!

Safety Awareness:

School Photographers now provide at minimal (usually$5.00) or no charge a state form to provide to police officials should your child become missing. You can also register your child with your local police department for free; remember the first 3hours are critical. Be prepared.